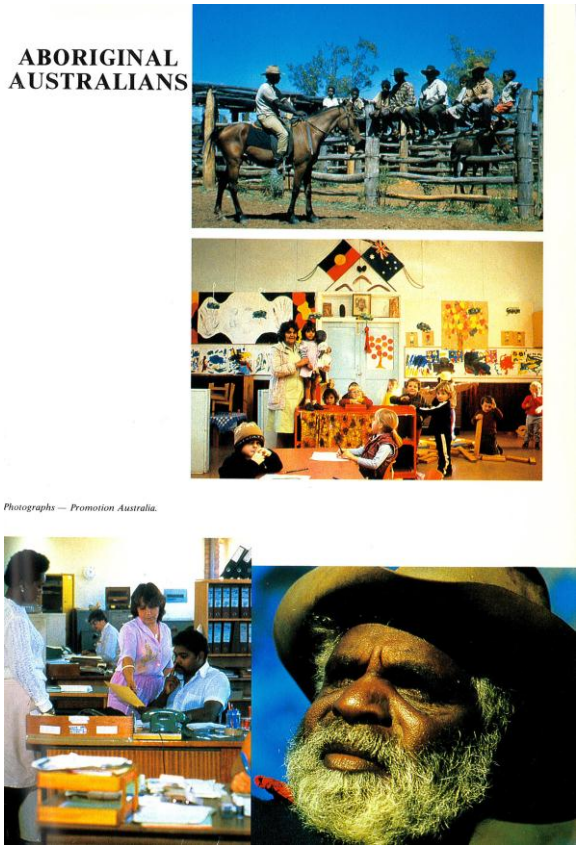
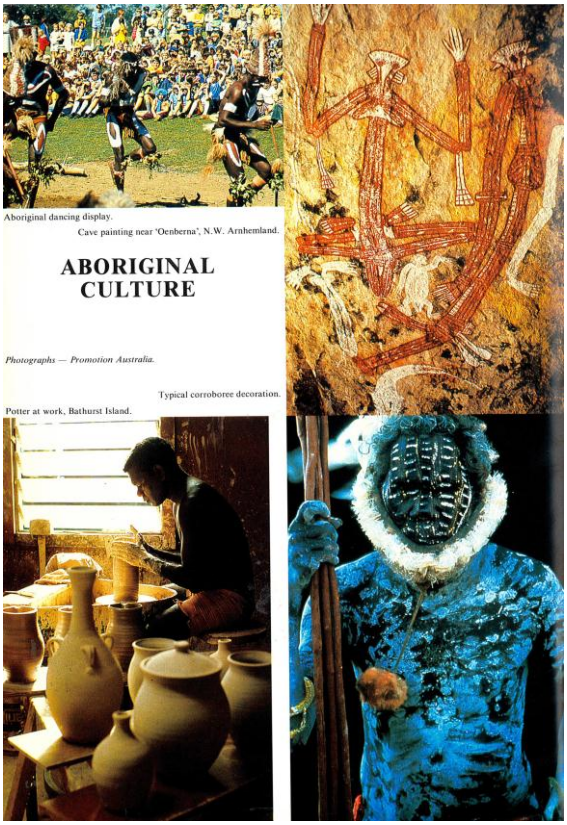
1988 and Now





These images are coloured plates from the Australian Bureau of Statistics Year Book Australia 1988.

Questions:

1. Write a short paragraph that summarises the overall message of the images.
2. Do you think there are any images that are missing from the pages that should be there? Give reasons.
3. If you were to make a page of images now, list the images would you include, and why?

Task:

Create your own page of images that could go into this year's Australian Bureau of Statistics Year Book Australia. You could use a variety of resources such as computers, the internet, magazines, newspapers and drawing.

Email your completed page to the Australian Bureau of Statistics Education Services Unit education@abs.gov.au, to be added to the community pages, and be recognised for your work.
